A detailed marble relief sculpture depicting a chariot race. Two horses are shown in profile, facing left, with their heads turned slightly towards the viewer. They are pulling a chariot, of which only the front portion and the legs of the driver are visible. The driver is a muscular man with curly hair, wearing a short tunic, and is leaning forward, holding the reins. The horses' manes and tails are flowing, suggesting movement. The entire scene is carved into a light-colored marble background.

The background is a dark navy blue. In the top-left corner, there are two overlapping geometric shapes: a blue parallelogram and a light green parallelogram. In the bottom-left corner, there is a circular inset showing a close-up of a circuit board with various electronic components. In the top-right corner, there is a faint, high-contrast image of a circuit board's traces.
